Sir,

In a petition submitted to you soon after the lamented death of my husband in August 1909, I represented that in consideration of the long and faithful services rendered by my late husband who was the main support of the large family left by him unprovided for, my eldest son now in the Secretariat (3rd grade of clerks) might be given some lift to enable him to take his father's place in the maintenance of the family But to my great misfortune, I find that there is no immediate prospect of my son getting any higher emoluments All the same with the small pay he gets he has to meet the expenses of the education of his two younger brothers also in addition to providing for the other needs of the family It is needless to say that the 50 Rs that he earns is hardly sufficient to meet the latter, with the result, the former will have to be neglected unless the Government takes mercy on him in the name of his father, and comes to his aid The two boys above referred to, are 5 and 7 years of age respectively I most humbly pray that in consideration of the straitened circumstances to which the family has unfortunately been reduced, these my two minor sons may be kindly granted suitable scholarships till they attain majority, to enable them to be educated properly Many such scholarships have been bestowed by the benign Government in the past, the latest being a scholarship of Rs 10 granted to a minor son of the late Anegundi Raja Rao, of the General & Revenue Secretariat As all the circumstances which led Government to take a compassionate
